ID Number:

Dear Name:

We have tried to collect money you owe the Department of Human Services. Either you have not made a satisfactory agreement to repay, or you have not kept your agreement to pay the money you owe.

As of the date on this notice, you owe $_____.

Your check in the amount of $_____ is being kept to pay all or part of the money you owe. If the amount you owe is less than the amount of your check, you will get the rest of the money. (State checks that are being kept are child care provider payments or lottery winnings.)

If you have questions about this letter, call the Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals at 1-800-572-3945 (toll-free).

You have the right to appeal this letter. Please see the back of this notice for more information.

If you need help filing an appeal, you may call Iowa Legal Aid at 1-800-532-1275. If you live in the Des Moines area, call 243-1193.

This action is taken based on Iowa Code Sections 8A.504, 441 Iowa Administrative Code 11.4(1), 11.4(2) and 170.9(5), and 11 Iowa Administrative Code 40.

You Have the Right to Appeal

What is an appeal? An appeal is asking for a hearing because you do not like a decision the Department of Human Services (DHS) makes. You have the right to file an appeal if you disagree with a decision. You do not have to pay to file an appeal. [441 Iowa Administrative Code Chapter 7].

How do I appeal? Filing an appeal is easy. You must appeal in writing for all programs, except for Food Assistance. You can appeal in person or by telephone for Food Assistance. To appeal in writing, do one of the following:

- Complete an appeal electronically at <https://dhssecure.dhs.state.ia.us/forms/>, or
- Write a letter telling us why you think a decision is wrong, or
- Fill out an Appeal and Request for Hearing form. You can get this form at your county DHS office.

Send or take your appeal to the Department of Human Services, Appeals Section, 5th Floor, 1305 E Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa 50319-0114. If you need help filing an appeal, ask your county DHS office.

How long do I have to appeal? For Food Assistance, you have 90 calendar days to file an appeal from the date of a decision. For all other programs, you must file an appeal:

- Within 15 calendar days of the date of a decision or
- Before the date a decision goes into effect

If you file an appeal more than 15 but less than 90 calendar days from the date of a decision, you must tell us why your appeal is late. If you have a good reason for filing your appeal late, we will decide if you can get a hearing.

If you file an appeal 90 days after the date of a decision, we cannot give you a hearing.

Can I continue to get benefits when my appeal is pending? You may keep your benefits until an appeal is final or through the end of your certification period if you file an appeal:

- Within 10 calendar days of the date of a decision or
- Before the date a decision goes into effect

Any benefits you get while your appeal is being decided may have to be paid back if the Department's action is correct.

How will I know if I get a hearing? You will get a hearing notice that tells you the date and time a telephone hearing is scheduled. You will get a letter telling you if you do not get a hearing. This letter will tell you why you did not get a hearing. It will also explain what you can do if you disagree with the decision to not give you a hearing.

Can I have someone else help me in the hearing? You or someone else, such as a friend or relative can tell why you disagree with the Department's decision. You may also have a lawyer help you, but the Department will not pay for one. Your county DHS office can give you information about legal services. The cost of legal services will be based on your income. You may also call Iowa Legal Aid at 1-800-532-1275. If you live in Polk County, call 243-1193.

Policy Regarding Discrimination, Harassment, Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity

It is the policy of the Iowa Department of Human Services (DHS) to provide equal treatment in employment and provision of services to applicants, employees and clients without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, political belief or veteran status.
