Rules:

Nancy Freudenberg

R-1 Amendments to Chapter 58, Emergency Assistance. Amendment restructure the emergency assistance programs managed by the Department. Specifically, these amendments update definitions to the Iowa Individual Disaster Aide Program and update damage assessment criteria and amounts. In addition, these amendments implement the Iowa Disaster Case Management Program.

R-2 Amendments to Chapters 77, 78, and 79, Medicaid. Amendments implement changes to multiple references to comprehensive functional assessment tool under waiver programs. In addition, these amendments provide technical clarification and updates to references and definitions.

R-3 Amendments to Chapter 78, Medicaid. Amendments change the requirement for a review of the treatment plan for home health services to be conducted every 60 days instead of 62 days. These amendments also define the timeframe that a face-to-face encounter between a physician or certain non-physician practitioners and members must occur for home health services to be received.

R-4 Amendments to Chapter 79, Medicaid. Amendments clarify the roles, responsibilities and membership of the Medical Assistance Advisory Council (MAAC) in accordance with 2016 Iowa Acts, HF 2460, section 99.

R-5 Replacement of Chapter 106, Standards for Children's Residential Facilities. Amendment rescinds and replaces the existing Chapter 106. This amendment places the Department in compliance with the legislative requirement to adopt new rules regarding standards for children's residential facilities. These rule changes implement 2016 Iowa Acts, SF 2304.
