

Determining Medical Support Orders in the Establishment and Modification Processes

Step 1: Does the payor have health insurance that is accessible to the child and reasonable in cost?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes: Order the payor to provide health insurance.• No: Go to Step 2.
Step 2: Is this a caretaker case?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• No: Go to Step 3.• Yes, and this order will include obligations for both payors: Go to Step 3 and consider the other parent's health insurance.• Yes, and there are separate orders for the two payors: Go to Step 4. Do not consider the other parent's health insurance.
Step 3: Does the payee/other parent have health insurance that is accessible to the child and reasonable in cost?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes: Order the payee/other parent to provide health insurance.• No: Go to Step 4.
Step 4: Has a parent requested to consent to health insurance that does not meet accessibility requirements?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes: Both parents must consent to accessibility for the same plan for CSRU to order it. If only one parent wants to consent, they will need to request a court hearing. Make sure either the cost for this plan is reasonable or the providing parent is consenting to cost also.• No: Go to Step 5.
Step 5: Has a parent requested to consent to carry health insurance above reasonable cost?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes, both parents have: If both parents want to provide the health insurance, a court hearing is needed to decide who will be ordered.• Yes, one parent has: If a parent consents to provide health insurance above reasonable cost, order that parent as long as the plan is accessible. If it is not accessible, both parents need to consent to the lack of accessibility.• No: Go to Step 6.
Step 6: Is the payor's preliminary net monthly income $0 to $1,150?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes: Order the payor to provide health insurance when it is available at no cost to add the child.• No: Go to Step 7.
Step 7: Is the payor's only income NOT subject to income withholding?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes: Order the payor to provide health insurance when it becomes available at reasonable cost.• No: Go to Step 8.
Step 8: Is the payor or a child in the payor's home receiving FIP, Medicaid or hawk-i?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Yes: Order the payor to provide health insurance when it is available at no cost to add the child.• No: Order the payor to provide cash medical support. Make sure the cash medical support is reasonable in cost.