Temporary Assistance for Needy Families

Purpose	Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) is a federal block grant that allows states flexibility in using funds to: help needy families care for children; end dependence on public benefits by promoting work; reduce out-of-wedlock pregnancies; and encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families.
Who Is Helped	TANF was created under the welfare reform legislation of 1996. Reform eliminated Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), ending federal entitlement and creating a flexible funding source for states to use in helping needy families achieve self-sufficiency. TANF funds are used to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Assist needy families so that children can be cared for in their own homes or in the homes of relatives</li> <li>2. Reduce the dependence of needy parents on government benefits by promoting job preparation, work and marriage</li> <li>3. Prevent and reduce the incidence of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and establish annual goals for preventing and reducing the incidence of these pregnancies</li> <li>4. Encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families.</li> </ol> Flexibility in the program allows transfer of a combined total of 30 percent of TANF funds to the Child Care Development Fund (CCDF) and the Social Services Block Grant (SSBG).	Utilization of TANF by Program SFY12  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Family Investment Programs</li> <li>■ Child Welfare</li> <li>■ CCDF and SSBG</li> <li>■ Service Delivery</li> </ul> <table border="1" style="margin-top: 10px; width: 100%; text-align: center;"> <caption>Utilization of TANF by Program SFY12</caption> <thead> <tr> <th>Program</th> <th>Percentage</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Family Investment Programs</td> <td>28%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Child Welfare</td> <td>25%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>CCDF and SSBG</td> <td>26%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Service Delivery</td> <td>21%</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> 	Program	Percentage	Family Investment Programs	28%	Child Welfare	25%	CCDF and SSBG	26%	Service Delivery	21%

Services	TANF funds are used for benefits and services targeted to needy families, as well as for service delivery and administrative expenses. The Family Investment Program (FIP) is the primary program that assists needy families so that children can be cared for in their own homes or in the homes of relatives. Programs designed to reduce dependence of needy parents on government benefits include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• PROMISE JOBS</li> <li>• Family Development and Self-Sufficiency (FaDSS)</li> <li>• Family Self-Sufficiency Grants (FSSG)</li> </ul>

	Preventing and reducing the incidence of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and encouraging the formation and maintenance of two-parent families is supported by the following programs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Pregnancy Prevention</li> <li>• Child Abuse Prevention</li> <li>• Child Welfare (selected programs)</li> <li>• Promoting Healthy Marriage</li> </ul> Transfers to support other programs include transfers for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Child Care Assistance</li> <li>• Early Childhood Iowa Grants</li> <li>• Social Services Block Grant</li> <li>• Service Delivery</li> </ul> ✓ Using a small portion of TANF funding for promoting health marriage allows the state to expand categorical eligibility for food assistance thus providing food assistance benefits to more lowans in need.
Goals &amp; Strategies	Strategies, goals and performance results for TANF are presented with the programs that TANF funds support.
SFY 2014 &amp; 2015 Budget Drivers	Iowa's annual TANF award is $131,030,394. The Iowa legislature allocates the grant award annually under the general categories described on the previous page. TANF funds not spent in the year awarded remain available to the state for the future year. The Department's recommendation for allocation of available TANF funds in SFY14 and SFY15 is presented following this narrative. The key budget drivers impacting the Department's recommendation include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• increasing/decreasing need in the program/service areas in which TANF can be used</li> <li>• limits on administrative costs</li> <li>• maintenance of effort (MOE) requirements</li> <li>• anticipated changes in TANF carryforwards between fiscal years</li> </ul> ✓ Use of TANF funds for administration of TANF programs is limited to 15 percent - Iowa spends less than 10 percent. ✓ State funds of at least 80 percent of spending under the prior ACDF programs (pre-reform) must be expended as maintenance of effort (MOE). Iowa's MOE for TANF is $65,845,626.
