Public Hearings to set Child Support Guidelines

DES MOINES, Iowa – Three public hearings have been set to gather input on setting guidelines for establishing court-ordered child support payments to custodial parents.

The Iowa Child Support Advisory Committee will hold public hearings in Carroll, Marion, and Des Moines to solicit comments on revising the Iowa Supreme Court's Child Support Guidelines. Recommendations will be sent to the court, which reviews the guidelines every four years.

The current guidelines may be found at:

<https://secureapp.dhs.state.ia.us/childsupport/includes/PDFfiles/Court%20Rules.pdf>

The public hearings will be:

- Thursday, Feb. 3, 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the Marion Public Library, 1095 Sixth Ave, Marion, Room A/B .
- Tuesday, Feb. 15, 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the Des Moines Public Library East, 2559 Hubbell Ave, Des Moines.
- Thursday, March 3, 5:30-7:30 p.m. at the Swan House, 1024 E 12th St, Carroll.

In addition to the public hearings, written comments may be submitted to the Child Support Advisory Committee, 400 SW 8th Street, Suite H, Des Moines, IA 50309-4633. Written comments must be received by March 3.
