OVERVIEW

Refugees resettled in the United States are usually brought here by a national voluntary resettlement agency or, in the unique case of Iowa, by a state government agency which is also a voluntary resettlement agency.

The refugees also usually have a local sponsor, such as an individual, a church, or fraternal group. The sponsors and resettlement agencies take on a moral obligation to help refugees secure employment, education, medical care, and basic needs, such as housing, food, clothing, furniture, and pocket money. They also help refugees adjust to life in the United States.

The Refugee Resettlement Program (RRP) is a federal program that provides for assistance when:

- ◆ There is a breakdown with the sponsor, or
- ◆ The refugee needs to help make the transition to self-sufficiency.

RRP provides funding for the following programs:

- ◆ Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA), described in this chapter.
- ◆ Refugee Medical Assistance (RMA), described in 6-D(1).
- ◆ Foster care and social casework services for refugee minors, described in XIII-F.

The RRP provides 100% federal funding for the Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA) program. RRP funds are available for a specific period of time, based upon each individual refugee's length of time in the United States. Once a refugee reaches the time limit, eligibility for RCA ceases. (See Time Since Entry to the U.S.)

Legal Basis

The following statutes amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to revise procedures for the admission of refugees:

- ◆ The Refugee Act of 1980, Public Law 96-212.
- ◆ The Refugee Assistance Amendments of 1982, Public Law 97-363.
- ◆ The Refugee Assistance Extension Act of 1986, Public Law 99-605.

OVERVIEW

Legal Basis

Revised March 9, 1999

Iowa Department of Human Services
Title 6 Other Income Maintenance Programs
Chapter D Refugee Cash Assistance

These laws also amend the Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1962 to establish a uniform basis for resettlement of admitted refugees. Public Law 100-202 provides for certain Amerasians in Vietnam and close family members to be admitted under immigrant status but be eligible for benefits as though they were refugees.

The Refugee Act of 1980 established an Office of Refugee Resettlement within the Department of Health and Human Services. The state plan for the Refugee Resettlement Program designates the Iowa Department of Human Services as the single state agency to administer the program.

Federal participation requirements are found in Code of Federal Regulations, Title 45, Part 400. The state's rules for Refugee Cash Assistance are found in 441--Chapter 60 of the Iowa Administrative Code.

Relationship to the Family Investment Program

When refugees apply for cash assistance, first determine eligibility for assistance under the Family Investment Program (FIP). When FIP eligibility does not exist, then examine the refugee household for eligibility under the RCA program.

The RCA program follows the FIP policies on eligibility, need, resources, and income in Title 4, unless specifically addressed in this chapter as being different for RCA.

Administration

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC Chapter 60

The administration of the RCA program must be in compliance with policies set forth in 4-A, ADMINISTRATION.

Provide information to all persons making inquiry about the RCA program, without regard to whether they are potential applicants, are making inquiry on behalf of specific persons or groups, or are making inquiry simply as a matter of securing information.

Remember: The FIP pamphlets do not apply to the RCA program.

APPLICATION PROCESSING

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.2(217), 60.3(217), 60.12(217)

Each refugee wishing to do so must have the opportunity to apply for cash assistance without delay, in person or by mail. Follow the policies and procedures in 4-B, APPLICATION PROCESSING, including the completion of the Financial Support Application, form 470-0462 or 470-0462(S), and the processing of this application.

Consider all applications submitted by or for a refugee for FIP eligibility before considering eligibility for RCA. See the following sections for information about these steps in application processing:

- ◆ Contacting the Bureau of Refugee Services
- ◆ Contacting the sponsor
- ◆ Contacting the local resettlement agency
- ◆ Determining FIP eligibility

Contacting the Bureau of Refugee Services

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212

Notify the Bureau of Refugee Services of applications for cash (or medical) assistance by sending form 470-0481, Notification to the Bureau of Refugee Services.

Contacting the Sponsor

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 9.10(11)

Contact the sponsor when a refugee applies for RCA. The purpose of the contact is to determine:

- ◆ What assistance is provided to the refugee and
- ◆ Whether the refugee has quit employment or failed to appear for a job or job interview when referred.

A telephone contact with the sponsor is sufficient. You do not need a release of information from the refugee.

Document in the case record the sponsor’s name and address and what contributions the sponsor is providing to the refugee. Also document whether the refugee has quit a job or refused to appear for job interviews when referred. If the sponsor provides a written statement, include this in the case record.

Contacting the Local Resettlement Agency

Legal reference: 45 CFR 400.27; 441 IAC 9.3(3)“e”

Notify the local resettlement agency when a refugee applies for Refugee Cash Assistance during the first eight months after entry into the United States. You do not need a release of information from the refugee.

Provide the refugee’s address and telephone number to the resettlement agency. When the Bureau of Refugee Services is the local resettlement agency, form 470-0481, Notification to the Bureau of Refugee Services, constitutes the notice.

This contact makes the local resettlement agency aware of a possible breakdown between the refugee and the sponsor. The resettlement agency must inform you if the refugee has quit a job or failed or refused to appear for a job or a job interview.

The local resettlement agencies are:

Contacting the Trafficking Verification Line

Legal reference: Victims of Trafficking & Violence Protection Act of 2000

Aliens who are certified as “victims of trafficking” by the Department of Health and Human Services’ Office of Refugee Resettlement are “eligible aliens” for Refugee Cash Assistance benefits for the allowable eight months of assistance.

When a victim of trafficking applies for benefits, follow normal procedures for determining eligibility for refugee cash assistance except:

- ◆ Accept the original Office of Refugee Resettlement certification letter for adults or letter for children under 18 years old in place of United States Citizenship and Immigrations Services (USCIS) documentation.

Although trafficking victims are not required to provide any documentation of their immigration status for benefit purposes, they may have various documents, such as form I-94, Arrival/Departure Card, with a stamp showing parole under Section 212(d)(5) of the INA, an employment authorization document, etc. The documentation may serve to verify identity.

- ◆ Contact the trafficking verification line at (202) 401-5510 to confirm the validity of the certification letter for adults or letter for children under 18 years old and to notify the Office of Refugee Resettlement of the benefits for which the person has applied.

Note: Do not contact SAVE concerning victims of trafficking, because SAVE will not have this information.

- ◆ Note the “entry date” for Refugee Cash Assistance benefit purposes. The person’s “entry date” is the certification date, which is in the body of the certification letter or letter for children. The certification is valid for eight months from the date of the initial certification date. (See Victims of Trafficking.)

Determining FIP Eligibility

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.4(1)

Consider eligibility for FIP before determining RCA eligibility. A refugee applicant or participant must accept FIP, rather than Refugee Cash Assistance, if eligible. Determine FIP eligibility by policies and procedures in Title 4, FAMILY INVESTMENT PROGRAM, including FIP specified relative policies.

When a refugee applicant is ineligible for FIP for any reason, issue a manual Notice of Decision, form 470-0486 or 470-0486(S), to the refugee informing the refugee of ineligibility for FIP. This notice is in addition to the manual or automated Notice of Decision for RCA and must be adequate. (See 4-A, Notification.)

State in the notice that the application is being processed for eligibility under the RCA program and that the applicant will receive another notice informing the applicant of that decision.

NONFINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC Chapter 60

The following FIP nonfinancial eligibility policies do not apply to the RCA program:

- ◆ FIP requirements for “categorical relatedness” are waived for the RCA eligibility determination. RCA eligibility is not based on family composition or presence of a child. This provision is designed to avoid a needy refugee becoming a burden on state or local public or voluntary resources, if the resettlement plan has broken down.
- ◆ PROMISE JOBS program requirements in 4-J do not apply to the RCA program.
- ◆ RCA applicants and participants do not assign support and are not required to assist in contacting an absent parent.
- ◆ Policies in 4-C, Persons Who Misrepresent Their Place of Residence, do not apply to the RCA program.

Aid types for RCA groups are in the 06 series.

The following sections explain the RCA nonfinancial eligibility requirements for:

- ◆ Age
- ◆ Alienage
- ◆ Benefits from SSI and other sources
- ◆ Contracts for support
- ◆ Duplicate assistance
- ◆ Electronic access card usage
- ◆ Composition of the eligible group
- ◆ Participation in a strike
- ◆ Residency
- ◆ Social security number
- ◆ Students
- ◆ Temporary absence from the home
- ◆ Time since entry to the United States
- ◆ Work requirements

Age

Legal reference: 441 IAC 60.5(1)

An unmarried refugee under age 18 who lives with a person who is not a specified relative as defined in 4-C, Specified Relatives, is not eligible for RCA. Refer the person to the service unit for assistance.

Alienage Requirements

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212 and 100-202; 45 CFR 400.43 and 400.44; 441 IAC 60.1(217)

A “refugee” is any person who:

- ◆ Is outside any country of the person’s nationality or, if the person has no nationality, is outside the country in which the person last habitually resided, and
- ◆ Is unable or unwilling to return to that country and unable or unwilling to avail himself or herself of the protection of that country because of persecution, or a well-founded fear of persecution, because of:
  - Race.
  - Religion.
  - Nationality.
  - Membership in a particular social group.
  - Political opinion.

Refugees meet the alienage requirements of the Refugee Resettlement Program when they have an immigration status shown in the following chart.

ALIENS ELIGIBLE FOR THE REFUGEE RESETTLEMENT PROGRAM

- ◆ A person granted asylum under Section 208 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA).<sup>1</sup>
- ◆ A person admitted as a refugee under Section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act.<sup>2</sup>
- ◆ A person paroled as a refugee or asylee under Section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.<sup>3</sup>
- ◆ A Cuban or Haitian entrant, in accordance with requirements in 45 CFR Part 401.
- ◆ An Amerasian from Vietnam who is admitted to the U.S. as an immigrant pursuant to Section 584 of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Acts of 1988.<sup>4</sup>
- ◆ A person admitted for permanent residence, provided the person previously held one of the statuses listed above.

Notes:

<sup>2</sup> The date of eligibility for time-limited services begins when the spouse or child enters the United States. It is not linked to the principal's date of arrival.

<sup>3</sup> People admitted or paroled under Section 212(d)(5) whose I-94 immigration document includes the words "humanitarian" or "public interest parolee" (PIP) are not eligible for RCA. Examine their eligibility under FIP only. (See Documentation Required for more information.)

<sup>4</sup> Section 101(e) of Public Law 100-202 was amended by the 9th proviso under Migration and Refugee Assistance in title II of Public Law 100-461, the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Acts, 1989, as amended.

The following sections address:

- ◆ Documentation requirements for each of the eligible statuses
- ◆ Nonrefugee children of refugee parents
- ◆ United States citizens

Documentation Required

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.1(3)

The refugee shall provide documentation to substantiate the immigration status. If the name of the agency that resettled the refugee is not on the document provided, the refugee shall provide the name of the resettlement agency.

Include in the case record:

- ◆ Documentation for each person of the person’s:
  - Local sponsoring resettlement agency.
  - Sponsor’s name and address.
  - Alien registration number.
  - Date of entry.
  - Nationality. (This refers to the person’s country of origin, such as Cambodia or Cuba, not to the person’s ethnicity.)
- ◆ A copy of the document used to verify alienage.

For asylees whose status was granted under §208 of the INA, acceptable documentation includes:

Documents/Codes	Explanation
I-94, Arrival/Departure Card , referencing §208 of the INA	Notations may include references to employment authorization, indefinite status, and the requirement to obtain permission before leaving the U.S.
AS-1 admission code on the I-94	Approved asylee principal
AS-2 admission code on the I-94	Approved spouse of an asylee principal
AS-3 admission code on the I-94	Approved child of an asylee principal
USCIS Form I-571	United States Refugee Travel Document <sup>1</sup>
I-766, Employment Authorization Document , with the code A05
I-688B, Employment Authorization Document , with the provision of law 274a.12(a)(5)	This is an older version of the employment authorization document but it is still in use.

NONFINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY

Alienage Requirements

Revised December 16, 2016

Iowa Department of Human Services

Title 6 Other Income Maintenance Programs

Chapter D Refugee Cash Assistance

Documents/Codes	Explanation
Order of an immigration judge granting asylum under §208 of the INA	Determine the 8-month RCA period from the date on the order (the date asylum was granted).  An order of an immigration judge serves as proof of asylee status if the USCIS has waived the right to appeal the case. See Note 2 following this chart for information about cases for which the USCIS reserves the right to appeal. <sup>2</sup>
Asylum Approval Letter from an USCIS Asylum Office  “ Recommended Asylum Approval ” letters are not proof of asylee status.	The letter will note that the person has been granted asylum pursuant to §208 of the INA and may include information concerning refugee and asylee relative petition, work authorization, and the refugee travel document.
Written decision from the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA)	The “entry date” (i.e., asylum grant date) will be the date on the BIA decision.
I-730, Approval Letter	The I-730 Approval Letter may be used as proof of asylee status for derivatives.
Visa 92 (or V-92) on the I-94, Arrival/Departure Card	May be accompanied by the words “section 208.” The person is the spouse or minor child of a previously granted asylee.

Notes:

<sup>1</sup> USCIS Form I-571 does not distinguish between refugees and asylees. A person with this document may be a refugee or an asylee. You must request other documentation to confirm whether the person is a refugee or asylee to be able to determine the eight-month RCA period. (See Time Since Entry to the U.S.)

<sup>2</sup> If the USCIS has reserved its right to appeal, an immigration judge order will not serve, on its own, as proof of asylee status. If an asylee brings an immigration judge order that shows the USCIS has reserved its right to appeal, wait 30 days from the date on the immigration judge order.

On or after the 31st day, call the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) case status line at (800) 898-7180 to find out whether the USCIS has appealed the case. The EOIR reports that it may take up to five days after the 30-day appeal deadline for the information to be relayed to the case status line. Continue to call the EOIR case status line until the appeal information has been updated. Delay the RCA eligibility determination until then.

If the USCIS has appealed the case, the person is not yet an asylee and is not eligible for RCA benefits. In that instance, deny the application.

If the USCIS has not appealed the case and 30 days have passed since the date on the immigration judge order, the person is an asylee and is eligible for RCA. The date asylum is granted is 30 days after the date on the order. Example:

An immigration judge order is dated October 1. USCIS reserves the appeal but does not appeal. October 31 is considered as the date asylum is granted. The eight-month RCA period is October through May.

Acceptable documents for refugees admitted under §207 of the INA:

Documents/Codes	Explanation
I-94, Arrival/Departure Card , noting that the person has been admitted under §207 of the INA	Notations may include references to employment authorization, indefinite status, and the requirement to obtain permission before leaving the U.S.
RE-1 admission code on the I-94	Principal refugee
RE-2 admission code on the I-94	Spouse of principal refugee
RE-3 admission code on the I-94	Child of principal refugee
RE-4 admission code on the I-94	Collateral relatives of principal refugee
RE-5 admission code on the I-94	Certain Haitian refugees
I-766, Employment Authorization Document , with the code A03
I-688B, Employment Authorization Document , with the provision of law 274a.12(a)(3)	This is an older version of the Employment Authorization Document but it is still in use.
USCIS Form I-571	United States Refugee Travel Document <sup>1</sup>
Visa 93 (or V-93) on the I-94, Arrival/Departure Card	May be accompanied by the words “section 207.” Person is the spouse or minor child of a previously admitted refugee.

Note:

<sup>1</sup> USCIS Form I-571 does not distinguish between refugees and asylees. A person with this document may be a refugee or an asylee. You must request other documentation to confirm whether the person is a refugee or asylee to be able to determine the eight-month RCA period. (See Time Since Entry to the U.S.)

Acceptable documents for people paroled as refugees or asylees under §212(d)(5) of the INA:

Documents/Codes	Explanation
I-94, Arrival/Departure Card , noting that the person has been paroled as a refugee or asylee under §212(d)(5)	To be eligible under this provision, the I-94 must note that the person is a refugee or asylee .
I-766, Employment Authorization Document , with the code A04
I-688B, Employment Authorization Document , with the provision of law 274a.12(a)(4)	This is an older version of The Employment Authorization Document but it is still in use.

Note: This status rarely has been granted since 1980, so it is unlikely that you will encounter this type of documentation.

You may encounter other people who are not refugees or asylees who have been paroled under §212(d)(5). The documentation of other parolees under §212(d)(5) may include language, such as “humanitarian” or “public interest parole.”

An example of a population with this documentation is parolees who receive benefits under the “Lautenberg Amendment,” a special provision that allows nationals from the former Soviet Union, Vietnam, Laos, or Cambodia to adjust their status after having resided in the United States for one year.

These types of parolees under §212(d)(5) are not eligible for RCA benefits. Only persons who are listed as refugees or asylees are eligible under this provision. However, if the person is a national of Cuba or Haiti, the person may be eligible under the provisions for Cuban and Haitian entrants. (See below.)

Acceptable documents for Cuban and Haitian entrants, in accordance with the requirements in 45 CFR 401.2, depends on whether the person has been granted parole status and whether the person is the subject of a removal, deportation, or exclusion proceeding:

- ◆ Any person granted parole status as a Cuban/Haitian entrant (status pending) or granted any other special status<sup>1</sup> subsequently established under the immigration laws for nationals of Cuba or Haiti, regardless of the status of the person at the time assistance or services are provided.

Documents/Codes	Explanation
An I-94, Arrival/Departure Card , with a stamp showing parole at any time as a “Cuban/Haitian Entrant (Status Pending)”	I-94 may refer to §212(d)(5).
CH6 adjustment code on the I-551	The person technically retains the status Cuban/Haitian Entrant (Status Pending) even after becoming a permanent resident,
An I-94, Arrival/Departure Card , with a stamp showing parole into the U.S. on or after April 21, 1980	I-94 may refer to §212(d)(5).
A Cuban or Haitian passport with a §212(d)(5) stamp dated after October 10, 1980.

Note:

<sup>1</sup> The phrase, “any other special status subsequently established under the immigration laws for nationals of Cuba or Haiti” does not refer to lawful permanent residence obtained under the Nicaraguan Adjustment and Central American Relief Act (NACARA) or the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act (HRIFA).

Although NACARA and HRIFA offer a special opportunity for nationals of Cuba and Haiti, the status conferred by these laws, lawful permanent residence, is not a “special status.” Thus, if the person did not qualify as a Cuban and Haitian entrant, adjustment of status, regardless of the legal basis for the adjustment, does not make the person a Cuban and Haitian entrant.

- ◆ A national of Cuba or Haiti who was paroled into the United States and has not acquired any other status under the INA and with respect to whom a final, nonappealable, and legally enforceable order of removal, deportation, or exclusion<sup>1</sup> has not been entered.

Documents/Codes	Explanation
An I-94, Arrival/Departure Card , showing parole into the United States	I-94 may refer to §212(d)(5), humanitarian or public interest parole.
I-766, Employment Authorization Document , with the code A04
I-766, Employment Authorization Document , with the code C11
I-688B, Employment Authorization Document , with the provision of law 274a.12(a)(4) <sup>2</sup>	This is an older version of the Employment Authorization Document but it is still in use.
I-688B, Employment Authorization Document , with the provision of law 274a.12(c)(11) <sup>2</sup>	This is an older version of the Employment Authorization Document but it is still in use.

- ◆ A national of Cuba or Haiti who is the subject of removal, deportation or exclusion proceedings<sup>3</sup> under the INA and with respect to whom a final, nonappealable, and legally enforceable order of removal, deportation or exclusion<sup>1</sup> has not been entered.

Documents	Explanation
USCIS Form I-221	Order to Show Cause and Notice of Hearing
USCIS Form I-862	Notice to Appear
USCIS Form I-220A	Order of Release on Recognizance
USCIS Form I-122	Notice to Applicant Detained for a Hearing Before an Immigration Judge
USCIS Form I-221S	Order to Show Cause, Notice of Hearing and Warrant for Arrest

Documents/Codes	Explanation of Codes
Copy of USCIS Form I-589, Application for Asylum and Withholding of Removal date stamped by the Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR)	Person is subject of removal, deportation or exclusion proceedings.
Copy of USCIS Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or to Adjust Status , date stamped by EOIR	Person is subject of removal, exclusion or deportation proceedings.
EOIR-26, Notice of Appeal	Date stamped by the Office of the Immigration Judge
I-766, Employment Authorization Document , with the code C10	Application for suspension of deportation or cancellation of removal submitted
I-688B, Employment Authorization Document , with the provision of law 274a.12(c)(10) <sup>2</sup>	Application for suspension of deportation or cancellation of removal submitted
Other applications for relief that have been date stamped by EOIR
Other documentation pertaining to an applicant's removal, exclusion, or deportation proceedings	Example: A notice of a hearing date before an immigration judge

Notes:

<sup>1</sup> Whether there is a final, nonappealable, legally enforceable order of removal, deportation or exclusion is a legal determination that cannot be made by reviewing any of the listed documents. It is not a decision that can be made in the course of the RCA eligibility determination.

It is suggested that you require a written declaration, under penalty of perjury, that the person has a status that makes the person eligible for RCA and use other methods to verify this information. For example, you may call the EOIR case status line at (800) 898-7180, submit Form G-845 to the local USCIS office, ask the applicant for more information, or access the SAVE system.

<sup>2</sup> If a person provides an I-688B Employment Authorization Document, which does not provide information about nationality, you must request other documentation to confirm that the person is a Cuban or Haitian national.

Alienage Requirements

Revised December 16, 2016

Iowa Department of Human Services

Title 6 Other Income Maintenance Programs

Chapter D Refugee Cash Assistance

<sup>3</sup> Although the listed documents show that proceedings have been initiated in a case, they do not confirm that proceedings are continuing. To confirm that proceedings are continuing, you will need to use other methods, such as calling the EOIR case status line at (800) 898-7180, submitting Form G-845 to the local USCIS office or accessing the SAVE system.

If an applicant appears eligible from the available documentation, include the person in the RCA grant until verification is received. If the verification received from USCIS indicates that the person is not an eligible refugee, remove the person from the RCA grant, subject to timely notice. Recoup excess RCA issued for the person during the interim.

Acceptable documents for eligible Amerasians include the following:

Documents/Codes	Explanation
AM-1 admission code on the I-94	Amerasian born in Vietnam after January 1, 1962, and before January 1, 1976, who was fathered by a U.S. citizen
AM-2 admission code on the I-94	Spouse or child of Amerasian
AM-3 admission code on the I-94	Mother, guardian, or next-of-kin of Amerasian
AM-6 adjustment code on Form I-551, Permanent Resident Card (or Resident Alien Card )	Amerasian (see above)
AM-7 adjustment code on Form I-551, Permanent Resident Card (or Resident Alien Card )	Spouse or child of Amerasian
AM-8 adjustment code on Form I-551, Permanent Resident Card (or Resident Alien Card )	Mother, guardian, or next-of-kin of Amerasian
Vietnamese exit visa with codes AM-1, AM-2 or AM-3	“Laissez Passer”; may have temporary I-551 stamp
Vietnamese passport with codes AM-1, AM-2 or AM-3	May have temporary I-551 stamp
United States passport with codes AM-1, AM-2 or AM-3

Acceptable documents for lawful permanent residents who previously held one of the statuses identified above. (Note that this does not refer to Amerasians who are admitted as lawful permanent residents. See the chart above for all documents pertaining to Amerasians.):

Documents/Codes	Explanation
Form I-551 with the following codes:	Permanent Resident Card (or Resident Alien Card)

Nonrefugee Child of Refugee Parent

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 45 CFR 400.208(a); 441 IAC 60.1(2)

A nonrefugee child meets the alienage requirements for Refugee Cash Assistance as long as the parent in the home with the child (or both parents if both are in the home) is a refugee. The child in this situation may have been born in the United States or elsewhere. If the parent in the home is a refugee, the child meets the alienage requirement for RCA, regardless of whether the absent parent is a refugee.

United States Citizen

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 45 CFR 400.208(b); 441 IAC 60.1(217)

A United States citizen or other nonrefugee is ineligible for the Refugee Resettlement Program unless the policy under Nonrefugee Child of Refugee Parent applies.

Both parents are in the home. One parent is a refugee and the other parent is a United States citizen. They have a child born in the United States. The refugee parent meets the alienage requirements for the RRP. The other parent and child are not eligible for the RRP because they are U.S. citizens.

If a United States citizen is eligible for FIP, that person's case must be processed as a FIP case.

Exception: Amerasians from Vietnam admitted as U.S. citizens may qualify for RCA if determined ineligible for FIP.

Benefits From SSI and Other Sources

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.4(217)

Refugees who are 65 or older, blind, or disabled must apply for Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and accept SSI if eligible. Immediately refer these refugees to the district Social Security office to apply for SSI. Once you have made the referral, determine eligibility for RCA. If they are otherwise eligible, refugees may draw RCA during the period that their SSI applications are pending.

Application for SSI (when referred) is an eligibility factor for RCA, unlike FIP. Refugees who fail to apply for SSI when you instruct them to are ineligible. Track the referral to be sure an SSI application has been made. If the refugee does not apply for SSI, terminate RCA, if eligibility is already established.

SSI policy provides for adjusting the retroactive benefit amount downward by the amount of RCA paid to a child or adult during the period covered by the retroactive benefit. Since ineligibility for RCA does not begin until receipt of an SSI payment, RCA payments issued before the receipt of SSI do not constitute overpayments, and are not subject to recovery.

In addition to FIP and SSI, RCA applicants and participants must apply for and accept all other benefits for which they may qualify. See 4-C, Benefits From Other Sources, for details.

Contract for Support

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.10(2)

A person entitled to total support under the terms of an enforceable contract is not eligible to receive RCA when the other party obligated to provide the support is fulfilling that part of the contract.

Duplicate Assistance

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.10(1)

A person whose needs are included in an RCA grant cannot concurrently receive a grant under any other public assistance program administered by the Department or from a public assistance program in another state. See 4-C, Duplicate Assistance, for more information.

Electronic Access Card Usage

Legal reference: 441 IAC 41.25(11)

A person who receives an RCA grant cannot use an electronic access card or personal debit card to access RCA benefits at:

- ◆ Liquor store or any place that mainly sells liquor,
- ◆ Casino or other gambling or gaming establishment, or
- ◆ Business which provides adult-oriented entertainment in which performers disrobe or perform in an unclothed state (such as a strip club).

This includes these types of businesses located in Iowa, on tribal land, or in any other state.

See 4-C, Electronic Access Card Usage, for more information.

Eligible Group

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.5(1)

Each adult refugee is considered as a separate RCA group, with the exceptions that:

- ◆ Married refugees living together are considered members of the same RCA group; and
- ◆ A refugee child is considered a member of the same RCA group as the child’s parents when living together.

An unmarried 18-year-old refugee living with parents eligible for RCA must be a member of the parents’ RCA group when the refugee is a full-time student expected to complete secondary school before age 19. Secondary school includes an equivalent level of vocational or technical training.

A refugee living alone who is at least age 18 or who is married is a one-member eligible group if otherwise eligible for RCA. (By Iowa law a child becomes an adult when the child marries, unless the marriage is annulled.) A refugee living alone who is under age 18 and unmarried is not eligible for RCA. Refer the refugee to the service unit for assistance.

Nine refugees live together: a mother, father and child under 18, the brother of the mother and his spouse, the adult sister of the mother, two other unrelated adult refugees, and the father’s niece (under 18), for whom he is caretaker.

Eligibility for cash assistance is processed as six separate eligible groups:

- ◆ Mother, father and child: one three-member group, either FIP or RCA;
- ◆ Brother of mother and spouse: one two-member RCA group;
- ◆ Sister of mother: one one-member RCA group;
- ◆ Two other unrelated refugees: two separate one-member RCA groups;
- ◆ Niece of father: one one-member FIP group.

Participation in a Strike

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.10(3)

The spouse and children are ineligible for RCA for any month in which the other spouse or parent is participating in a strike on the last day of the month.

Any person who is not a parent or spouse is ineligible for RCA for any month in which the person is participating in a strike on the last day of that month.

Refer to 4-C, Strikers, for details.

Residency

Legal reference: 441 IAC 60.5(2)

To be eligible for RCA, a refugee must meet the requirements in 4-C, Residency.

Social Security Number

Legal reference: 441 IAC 60.5(3)

To be eligible for RCA, a refugee must meet the requirements in 4-C, Social Security Number.

Students

Legal reference: Public Laws 96-212 and 97-363; 441 IAC 60.6(217)

Refugee Cash Assistance is not available to refugees who are full-time students in institutions of higher education unless the program is approved as part of an individual employability plan. (See Individual Employability Plan for details.)

Full-Time Student

Legal reference: Public Law 97-363; 34 CFR 690.2; 441 IAC 60.6(2)

A full-time student is a student who is carrying a full-time academic workload that equals or exceeds:

- ◆ 12 semester or 12 quarter hours per academic term in those institutions using standard semester, trimester, or quarter hour systems;
- ◆ 24 semester hours or 36 quarter hours per academic year for institutions using credit hours to measure progress, but not using semester, trimester, or quarter systems, or the prorated equivalent for programs of less than one academic year;
- ◆ 24 clock hours per week for institutions using clock hours;
- ◆ A series of courses or seminars which equals 12 semester hours or 12 quarter hours in a maximum of 18 weeks; or
- ◆ The work portion of a cooperative education program in which the amount of work performed is equivalent to the academic workload of a full-time student.

Institution of Higher Education

Legal reference: Public Law 97-363; 34 CFR 668.2(a)(4), 668.3(a)(5), 668.4(a)(4); 441 IAC 60.6(1)

An “institution of higher education” is an educational institution that provides a program as specified below.

- ◆ A public or private nonprofit institution of higher education that provides:
  - An educational program for which it awards an associate, baccalaureate, graduate, or professional degree, or
  - At least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a baccalaureate degree, or
  - At least a one-year training program that leads to a certificate or degree and prepares students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.

- ◆ A proprietary institution of higher education that provides at least a six-month program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.
- ◆ A postsecondary vocational institution is a public or private nonprofit educational institution that provides at least a six-month program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation.

Temporary Absence From Home

Legal reference: 441 IAC 60.11(217)

Follow the policies and procedures outlined in 4-C, Temporary Absence.

Time Since Entry to the U.S.

Legal reference: 45 CFR 400.203; 441 IAC 60.7(217)

Except as described in Date of Entry for Asylees, an eligible refugee may receive Refugee Cash Assistance only during the first eight months the refugee is in the United States, beginning the month the refugee enters the country. This time limit applies to each person, not to each case. The eight-month period begins the month the refugee enters the United States, regardless of which day during the month the refugee enters.

NONFINANCIAL ELIGIBILITY

Time Since Entry to the U.S.

Revised February 21, 2014

Iowa Department of Human Services

Title 6 Other Income Maintenance Programs

Chapter D Refugee Cash Assistance

A nonrefugee child in the home with one or both refugee parents is eligible for RCA until each parent has been in the United States for eight months, or until the child reaches eight months of age, whichever occurs first.

A refugee enters the United States September 27, 1998, and is receiving RCA (aid type 06 series). The eight-month period for RCA ends April 26, 1999. The refugee is removed or canceled from RCA effective May 1, 1999. No RCA is paid after May 1999.

Use the tickler system (ABCT) to enter the date each refugee entered the United States. Under “due date,” enter the date the refugee will be considered as having been in the United States for eight months. Enter the message by entering the date of entry first, then listing the name of each refugee who came into the United States on that date.

The tickler message is sent to you the month before the due date and the month due. Refer to 14-B\(4\), TICKLER ON-LINE DISPLAY (ABCT), for additional information.

When an individual is being removed from an RCA case after eight months, reduce the grant if only part of the refugees on the case have been in the United States for eight months. Cancel the entire case from RCA if all the refugees on the case have been in the United States for eight months.

Send a timely notice when removing a refugee’s needs from a case or when canceling a case due to the eight-month provision. See 4-A, Notification.

Date of Entry for Asylees

Legal reference: ORR State Letter No. 00-15; 45 CFR 400.203(b); 400.211

The “date of entry” for asylees is the date they are granted asylum and begins the eight-month eligibility period for RCA.

February 15      Date of entry
November 6      Date asylum is granted
November 6 is considered the “date of entry.” The eight-month RCA eligibility period is from November through June.

If an asylee includes his or her spouse and children on the asylum application, the family members have the same “entry” date (i.e., asylum grant date) as the principal asylee.

In some cases, an asylee’s family may not yet be in the U.S. To bring the family to the U.S., the principal asylee must complete form I-730, Approval Letter. The family members’ physical date of entry is their “entry” date (i.e., asylum grant date) from which to determine their RCA period. This date will be noted on the I-730 (and I-94 and Visa 92).

If family members live in the United States but are not included on the principal’s asylum application, the principal asylee must complete form I-730. The approval date of the I-730 is considered the family members’ “entry” date (i.e., asylum grant date) from which to determine their RCA period. The I-730 approval date will also be noted on the person’s I-94.

Cuban and Haitian entrants may be eligible for RCA before they are granted asylum. However, people who previously were eligible for RCA in accordance with ORR regulations for Cuban and Haitian entrants cannot receive an additional eight-month RCA period from the date asylum is granted.

Victims of Trafficking

Legal reference: Public Law `104-193

The certification for a victim of trafficking is valid for eight months from the date of the initial certification date. The person’s “entry date” is the certification date in the body of the certification letter or letter for children under 18 years old issued by the Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Refugee Resettlement.

Once you have verified that the person is a victim of trafficking, you will need to determine if the person meets other eligibility requirements. If so, issue benefits to the same extent as for a refugee.

As with any other refugee, for trafficking victims who present the required certification letters, first determine their eligibility under FIP. Refer to Determining FIP Eligibility for special instructions. For specific instructions on medical assistance, refer to 6-D\(1\), Accepting FMAP-Related or SSI-Related Medicaid.

Record the expiration date of the certification letter or the letter for children by using the tickler system, and conduct redeterminations of eligibility at that time. The expiration date is specified in the person's certification letter.

Victims of trafficking may not yet have standard identity documents, such as driver's licenses. Do not automatically deny applications for people who cannot confirm their identity. In these cases, call the trafficking verification line at (202) 401-5510 for assistance.

Some victims of trafficking may not yet have or may not be able to get a social security number for work purposes. Assist these people in obtaining non-work social security numbers. Do so by sending a letter to the Social Security Administration that:

- ◆ Is on letterhead.
- ◆ Includes the applicant's name.
- ◆ Mentions that this person is a trafficking victim.
- ◆ References the non-work reason for which the number is required to receive benefits.
- ◆ States that the applicant meets the requirements to receive benefits except for the social security number.

If you encounter a person you believe may meet the definition of trafficking victim, go through your usual channels to obtain instructions on providing the person with assistance in contacting the Office of Refugee Resettlement for possible certification by that agency.

Trafficking victims are eligible for RCA only for one eight-month period, the same as refugees. Cancel RCA at the end of the specified certification period. You must give timely notice.

Note: A victim of trafficking who is issued recertification letter by the Office of Refugee Resettlement may be eligible to receive FIP benefits beyond the eight-month certification period.

If a victim of trafficking gains an eligible alien status, use the new eligible alien status to be used when redetermining eligibility for that person.

Work Requirements

Legal reference: Public Law 97-363, Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.8(217) and 60.9(217)

An employable refugee must:

- ◆ Register for employment with the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) within 30 days of the receipt of RCA.
- ◆ Participate in employment services provided by the Bureau of Refugee Services within 30 days from receipt of assistance. Participation includes:
  - Developing an individual employability plan.
  - Participating in job search, where applicable.
  - Going to a job interview arranged by the Bureau of Refugee Services.
  - Participating in a social service or targeted assistance program which the Bureau of Refugee Services determines to be available or appropriate.
- ◆ Apply for and accept an offer of employment meeting the standards described in Appropriate Work and Standards Applying to Both Work and Training. The refugee must accept such a job without regard to whether the job would interrupt a program of services planned or in progress, unless the refugee:
  - Is currently participating in a program in progress of on-the-job-training or vocational training approved as part of the refugee's individual employability plan, or
  - Is enrolled full time in a professional recertification program approved as part of the refugee's individual employability plan.
- ◆ Not voluntarily quit a job.
- ◆ Participate in any employability service program that is determined available and appropriate by the Department.

An employable refugee is a refugee who does not meet the criteria listed under Exemption Criteria. Refugees who are exempt from these requirements can volunteer to register for work.

Exemption Criteria

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.8(1)

The following refugees are exempt from work registration (and other work and training requirements):

- ◆ A refugee who is under the age of 16 or aged 65 or older.
- ◆ A refugee aged 16 or 17 who is attending elementary, secondary, vocational, or technical school as a full-time student. (See 4-C, School Attendance, for the definition of full-time student.)
- ◆ A refugee of 18 years of age who is a full-time student in a secondary school, or in the equivalent level of vocational or technical training, when the refugee is reasonably expected to complete this program before reaching age 19. (See 4-C, School Attendance, for the definition of full-time student.)
- ◆ A refugee who is ill, when the Department determines on the basis of medical evidence or on another sound basis that the illness or injury is serious enough to temporarily prevent entry into employment or training.

- ◆ A refugee who is incapacitated, when a physician or psychologist determines that physical or mental impairment, by itself or in conjunction with age, prevents the refugee from engaging in employment or training. (See 4-C, Verification of Incapacity, for more information on how to obtain evidence.)
- ◆ A refugee who is caring for another member of the household who has a physical or mental impairment which requires care in the home on a substantially continuous basis, as determined by a physician or licensed or certified psychologist, and no other appropriate household member is available.
- ◆ A woman who is pregnant if it has been medically verified that the child is expected to be born in the month in which work registration would otherwise be required or within the next six months.
- ◆ A parent or other eligible caretaker of a child under the age of three who personally provides full-time care for the child with only very brief and infrequent absences from the child. “Brief and infrequent absence” means short-term absences which do not recur on a regular basis. Only one parent or other caretaker relative may be exempt under this policy.

Consider any involvement by the parent in work of less than 129 hours per month or attendance in school of less than full time, as defined by the school, brief and infrequent. Also consider recreational activities and vacations by the parent or child that result in the parent being absent from the child brief and infrequent.

- ◆ A refugee who is working at least 30 hours a week in unsubsidized employment expected to last a minimum of 30 days. The exemption continues when there is temporary break in full-time employment expected to last no longer than ten work days. (Determine hours of self-employment by the actual number of hours worked in a month.)

Inability to communicate in English does not exempt a refugee from registration for employment services, participation in employability service programs and acceptance of appropriate offers of employment.

Work Registration Process

Legal reference: Public Law 97-363, Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.8(217)

All employable refugees who apply for or receive RCA must register with the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) for employment as a condition of receiving cash assistance. Any RCA applicant or participant who is exempt as described in Exemption Criteria can register, but is not required to do so.

Use form 470-0480, Refugee Referral to IWD and to Refugee Services, to register the refugee for work. The refugee must first take this form to IWD to be completed and then forward the form to the Bureau of Refugee Services in Des Moines. The Bureau signs the form, keeps a copy, and returns the original to your office.

Do not approve eligibility for RCA unless the required signatures from the Bureau of Refugee Services and the IWD are on form 470-0480 and you have the form in the case file. Once you receive the signed form, RCA eligibility can be effective as early as seven days after the date of application.

Individual Employability Plan

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.9(3)

Each RCA participant must have an individual employability plan, unless the participant is exempt as described under Exemption Criteria. The plan is part of the family's self-sufficiency plan. The Bureau of Refugee Services is responsible for developing the individual employability plan in coordination with the RCA participant. The plan must:

- ◆ Be designed to lead to the earliest possible employment and not be structured in such a way as to discourage or delay employment or job seeking.
- ◆ Contain a definite employment goal, attainable in the shortest time consistent with the employability of the refugee in relation to opening in the area.

Do not deny RCA to a refugee of any age who is otherwise eligible while the refugee is enrolled and participating in a full-time education or training program that is part of an individual employability plan. Such a program is limited to one year in duration and must be approved by the Bureau of Refugee Services.

“One year” means the 12-month period beginning with the date that the client’s training plan is established by the Bureau of Refugee Services. For applicants, this must occur shortly after the date of application. For participants, it must occur within 30 days after the participant’s eighteenth birthday. The “year” includes any time the refugee was enrolled in such a program in the U.S. before the refugee’s application for assistance.

An education or training program for full-time attendance in a college or professional training program by a refugee in need of professional refresher training or other recertification services in order to qualify to practice that profession in the United States may be approved when:

- ◆ The training does not exceed one year’s duration (including any time enrolled in such a program in the United States before the refugee’s application for assistance).
- ◆ The training is specifically intended to assist the professional in becoming relicensed in that profession.
- ◆ The training, when completed, can realistically be expected to result in relicensing.

Full-time attendance in a college program for a person age 18 or over is not considered appropriate training, unless the program is for job-related training or professional relicensing.

Job Search

Legal reference: 45 CFR 400.80; 441 IAC 60.9(4)

An employable refugee participant must carry out a job search program beginning at any time required by the Bureau of Refugee Services. The Bureau of Refugee Services must require the job search program to begin:

- ◆ No later than six months after the refugee entered the United States, or
- ◆ At the time the refugee is determined eligible for Refugee Cash Assistance, if the refugee has completed at least six months in the United States at the time of such determination.

The job search program must continue for at least eight consecutive weeks and must meet such requirements as the Bureau of Refugee Services determines appropriate. This includes the amount of time to be devoted to employer contacts per week or the number of employer contacts required per week.

The Bureau of Refugee Services must determine and carry out the procedures it considered necessary to ensure that the requirements for participation in job search are met.

Appropriate Work

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.9(2)

Use the following criteria to determine whether a specific job is appropriate work:

- ◆ Appropriate work may be temporary, permanent, full-time, part-time, or seasonal work, if it meets the other work standards listed under Standards Applying to Both Work and Training;
- ◆ The wage must meet or exceed the federal or state minimum wage law, whichever is applicable; or if such laws are not applicable, the wage cannot be less favorable than the wage normally paid for similar work in that labor market; but in no event shall it be less than three-fourths of the minimum wage rate;
- ◆ The daily hours of work and the weekly hours of work must not exceed those customary to the occupation; and
- ◆ A person cannot be required to accept employment if:
  - The position offered is vacant due to a strike, lockout, or other bona fide labor dispute;
  - The person would be required to work for an employer contrary to the conditions of the person's existing membership in the union governing that occupation. However, employment not governed by the rules of a union in which the person has membership may be deemed appropriate.

Standards Applying to Both Work and Training

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.9(1)

The following additional standards must be met before an employable refugee can be required to accept a work or training assignment.

- ◆ The job or training referral must be related to the physical and mental capability of the person to perform the task on a regular basis. Any claim of adverse effect on physical or mental health shall be based on adequate medical testimony from a physician (includes chiropractor) or licensed or certified psychologist, indicating that participation would impair the person's physical or mental health. The cost of obtaining medical evidence is allowable 100% reimbursable cost to the state.
- ◆ The total daily commuting time to and from home to the work or training site to which the person is referred must not normally exceed two hours, not including the transporting of a child to and from a child care facility, unless a longer commuting distance and time are generally accepted in the community. In that case, the round-trip commuting time must not exceed the generally accepted community standards.
- ◆ The work or training site to which the person is referred must not be in violation of applicable federal, state, or local health and safety standards.
- ◆ Referrals must not be made which are discriminatory in terms of age, sex, race, creed, color, or national origin.
- ◆ When child care is required, the child care must meet state licensing or registration requirements.
- ◆ Available manpower statistics for a local area must indicate adequate employment potential for persons obtaining the given training. The employment must also meet the other appropriate work requirements.
- ◆ The work or training assignment must be within the scope of the individual's employability plan.
- ◆ The quality of training must meet local employers' requirements so that the individual will be in a competitive position within the local labor market. The training must also be likely to lead to employment which will meet the appropriate work criteria.

- ◆ If a refugee is a professional in need of professional refresher training and other recertification services in order to qualify to practice the individual's profession in the United States, the training may consist of full-time attendance in a college or professional training program, provided that the training is approved by the Bureau of Refugee Services as a part of the individual's employability plan and:
  - It does not exceed one year's duration (including any time enrolled in the program in the United States before the refugee's application for assistance);
  - It is specifically intended to assist the professional in becoming relicensed in the individual's profession;
  - If completed, it can realistically be expected to result in relicensing.

When the Bureau of Refugee Services determines that the refugee requires training, request services from the Bureau of Refugee Services.

Training for Employed Refugee Participants

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.9(4)

An employable refugee participant who is employed less than 30 hours a week is required to participate in part-time employability services when it is available and appropriate. Determine this after consulting with the Bureau of Refugee Services. This is a condition for continued receipt of assistance by the participant.

When the refugee participant is employed at least 30 hours per week, then encourage, but do not require, part-time employability services, provided that such services do not interfere with the participant's job. Implement this policy in cooperation with the Bureau of Refugee Services (and Iowa Workforce Development or an area school, if appropriate).

Failure to Meet Work Requirements

Legal reference: 45 CFR 400.82, 441 IAC 60.9(5)“a”

An employable refugee applicant or participant who fails or refuses to comply with the requirements in Work Requirements is ineligible for RCA.

The Bureau of Refugee Services will notify you when a refugee fails or refuses to participate in the Bureau's programs. When the Bureau notifies you of noncompliance, implement the sanctions in this section.

Unless the refugee is exempt as described in Exemption Criteria, terminate assistance when an employable RCA participant has refused or failed to comply with any work requirements without good cause.

Give timely and adequate notice when taking action to reduce, discontinue, or terminate assistance. (Timely notice is not required when denying an application.) See 4-A, Notification, for details.

Include in the notice an explanation of the reason for the action and consequences of the failure or refusal, and notice of the refugee's right to appeal the Department's action. (See 1-E, APPEALS AND HEARINGS, for specific information.)

The following sections entitled Applicants, Participants, Conciliation Period, and Sanction for Failure or Refusal to Cooperate describe the effect of noncompliance for an applicant and for a participant.

Applicants

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.9(5)

Determine at the time of application whether the applicant voluntarily quit for the purpose of receiving assistance or refused or failed to apply or accept an appropriate offer of employment during the previous 30 consecutive calendar days.

When IWD or the Bureau of Refugee Services made the job referral, consult with that agency to determine whether the client had an acceptable basis for refusal or failure.

Deny assistance when an employable refugee applicant during the 30 consecutive calendar days immediately before the receipt of assistance:

- ◆ Voluntarily quits appropriate employment for the purpose of receiving assistance.
- ◆ Refuses or fails to:
  - Register for work.
  - Submit the registration form to the bureau of refugee services.
  - Apply for or accept an appropriate offer of employment.

The first day of possible eligibility for RCA is 31 calendar days after the date an employable refugee applicant has voluntarily quit appropriate employment or refused or failed to apply for or accept an appropriate offer of employment. The dependent family of the ineligible refugee may, however, apply for and receive RCA.

Employment from any source is subject to this policy, if determined appropriate, using criteria under Appropriate Work and Standards Applying to Both Work and Training in this chapter.

Exception: An employable refugee may refuse a job offer without penalty if the refugee is currently participating in an approved program in progress of on-the-job training, vocational training or professional recertification.

Consult with the Bureau of Refugee Services when a refugee claims participation in a program that allows a job refusal.

Participants

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 441 IAC 60.9(5)

The refugee must accept employment or training from any source if determined appropriate by the county office. An employable refugee who fails or refuses to meet these requirements is not eligible for RCA.

Terminate assistance when an employable refugee participant fails or refuses to meet the requirements in Work Requirements.

The dependent family of the ineligible refugee may, however, apply for and receive cash assistance.

Use criteria under Appropriate Work and Standards Applying to Both Work and Training to determine if employment or training is appropriate.

Determine whether the participant had good cause to quit. When the participant quits a job that was offered by IWD or by the Bureau of Refugee Services, consult with that agency in making its determination.

Exception: An employable refugee may refuse a job offer without penalty if the refugee is currently participating in an approved program in progress of on-the-job training or professional recertification.

Consult with the Bureau of Refugee Services when a refugee claims participation in a program plan that allows a job refusal.

Follow the procedure set forth in Conciliation Period and Sanctions for Failure or Refusal to Cooperate.

Conciliation Period

Legal reference: 441 IAC 60.9(5)“e”

Before initiating the sanctions imposed under Sanctions for Refusal or Failure to Cooperate, provide a conciliation period. Attempt to contact the refugee to try to facilitate cooperation as soon as possible, but not later than ten days following the date that failure or refusal to participate becomes known.

The conciliation period cannot exceed 30 days. Either the Department or the participant may terminate the period sooner if either believes that the dispute cannot be resolved by conciliation.

Whenever feasible, include Bureau of Refugee Services (BRS) staff in any conciliation conferences between you and the refugee. BRS staff can help to ascertain, evaluate, and remove barriers that may be interfering with the refugee’s ability to participate.

Coordinate with BRS staff all the activities in this regard and fully apprise each other of respective efforts to encourage the refugee’s participation.

When a need for social services is identified as the reason for not participating, BRS will work with the refugee to plan and initiate activities directed toward removing such barriers. These may include family counseling, medical services, psychological evaluations, and referral to other community services or agencies.

During the conciliation conferences with BRS staff, consider the refugee’s views and clearly explain the refugee’s rights and responsibilities under the program. Also inform the refugee of the consequences of continued failure to participate as required.

Conciliation may be considered successfully achieved when a refugee expresses a genuine desire to continue participation in the program and immediately performs accordingly.

Sanctions for Failure or Refusal to Cooperate

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212, Public Law 96-363; 441 IAC 60.9(5)“c”

An employable refugee participant is ineligible for Refugee Cash Assistance for the following periods when assistance is terminated for refusing or failing to meet the requirements in Failure to Meet Work Requirements:

- ◆ For three payment months for the first occurrence.
- ◆ For six payment months for the second and subsequent occurrences.

Apply the sanctions in the following manner:

- ◆ If the eligible group includes other people, reduce the grant by the amount included on behalf of the refugee subject to the sanction. If the employable refugee is a caretaker relative, issue assistance in the form of protective payments to the remaining members of the assistance unit.
- ◆ If the sanctioned person is the only person in the eligible group, cancel the case.
- ◆ Notify the Bureau of Refugee Services and the sponsor (or the local sponsoring resettlement agency, when there is no available sponsor) of the action taken.

After the required conciliation period has expired, issue a timely notice of the reduction or termination and the reasons for it. Recover excess benefits that are received in the month following the month of refusal or failure. If assistance is continued pending an appeal decision, all overpayments issued pending the final decision are subject to recovery if the Department’s action is upheld.

Apply these sanctions whether the employment or training is offered through Iowa Workforce Development, the Bureau of Refugee Services, or another source.

Do not apply the sanctions if a voluntary registrant fails or refuses to participate in appropriate employability services or to accept an appropriate offer of employment. However, the Bureau of Refugee Services may deregister the refugee for up to 90 days from the date the refugee failed or refused to cooperate.

RESOURCES

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 45 CFR 400.61; 441 IAC 60.5(5), (6)

| When determining eligibility for RCA, treat resources the same as for FIP. Do not deem the income and resources of sponsors to determine RCA eligibility. Also, do not consider resources left behind in the refugee's country of origin.

The resource limit for an applicant household is $2,000.

The resource limit for a participant household is $5,000. Allow the $5,000 participant limit for any applicant case containing a member:

- ◆ Who received a cash grant in Iowa in the month before the month of application (unless the grant is subject to recoupment).
- ◆ Who did not get a grant in the month before the month of application due to the limit on grants for under $10 or due to rounding.
- ◆ Whose assistance grant was suspended in the month before the month of application.

| See 4-D, VEHICLES, for the exempt equity amount for motor vehicles.

Exempt up to $10,000 in equity for tools of the trade for households with self-employment members.

| Exempt the balance in an individual development account (IDA).

Consider the resources of refugees who are excluded because of the eight-month limit in the same manner as though these refugees were included in the eligible group.

RESOURCES

Revised December 29, 2006

Iowa Department of Human Services
Title 6 Other Income Maintenance Programs
Chapter D Refugee Cash Assistance

Family P is being examined for RCA eligibility. Mr. P and one child have been in the United States for eight months. Mrs. P and one child have not been in the United States eight months. The applicant resource limit for this family is $2,000.

Mr. P has $1,700 in countable resources and Mrs. P has $500 in countable resources. Their combined countable resources equal $2,200. Mrs. P and the child are not eligible for RCA, since the family's resources exceed the $2,000 applicant limit.

See 4-D, RESOURCES, for more information.

INCOME

Legal reference: Public Law 96-212; 45 CFR 400.61; 400.66(d); 441 IAC 60.5(5), (6); 60.7(2)“d”

When determining eligibility for RCA, treat income in the same manner as for FIP except where otherwise stated. See 4-E, INCOME, 4-F, BUDGETING, and 4-G, CASE MAINTENANCE.

Resettlement monies, whether in the form of vendor payments (for rent, utilities, etc.) or cash given directly to the refugee, are exempt as income and as a resource.

Exempt interest and dividend income. (See 4-E, Interest Income.)

Count child support received as unearned income. The first $50 of monthly support is exempt as income and a resource when payments are made by a legally responsible person.

Exempt deposits into an individual development account (IDA). (See 4-E, Individual Development Accounts.)

Work Expense Deduction

Allow the following deductions from nonexempt gross earnings or the net profit from self-employment for any person whose income must be considered:

1. 20% earned income deduction.
2. Diversion for persons not living in the home.
3. Diversion for ineligible or excluded persons in the home, if appropriate.
4. 58% work incentive deduction. (EXCEPTION: Do not apply the 58% work incentive deduction when determining initial eligibility for a case as described in 4-F, BUDGETING.)

See 4-E, Earned Income Deductions, for more information.

Income of Refugees Over Time Limit

Legal reference: 45 CFR 400.62; 441 IAC 60.7(1) and (2)

The total gross income of both the eligible group and the refugees excluded because of the eight-month limit must meet the gross income limit of the eligible group.

When the eligible refugee group has income, divert the income to meet the needs of the refugees ineligible because of the time limit who would otherwise have been included in the refugee assistance group.

First use the income of the refugees ineligible because of the time limit who would otherwise have been included in the assistance group to meet the needs of the ineligible group. Then apply it to the eligible group's needs.

The amount of need for the ineligible group is the difference between the needs of the group including the ineligible refugees and the needs of the group excluding the ineligible refugees. Apply any excess as unearned income to the needs of the eligible group.

This policy differs from FIP policy in that you can divert income from an eligible individual to an ineligible spouse (who is over the time limit).

1. Mr. V has not been in the United States eight months. He has gross earned income of $700 and no resources. Mrs. V and one child have been in the United States eight months. Neither Mrs. V nor the child has any income or resources. Mr. V is not eligible for RCA, as $700 gross earned income exceeds the gross income level for one person.
2. Mr. A has been in the United States less than eight months and has gross income of $300 from part-time employment. His wife has been in the United States more than eight months and has no income. They have no resources.

Mr. A's gross income meets the gross income test for one person. To determine the amount to divert from Mr. A's income for Mrs. A's needs, the worker takes $361 (the needs including the ineligible person) and subtracts $183 (the needs excluding the ineligible person). $178 is the amount Mr. A can divert for his wife.

Mr. A is allowed the following deductions and diversions:

$ 300.00	Mr. A's gross earnings
- 60.00	20% earned income deduction
- 178.00	Diversion for Mrs. A's needs
$ 62.00
- 35.96	58% work incentive deduction
$ 26.04	Mr. A's countable income
$ 183.00	Mr. A's needs
- 26.04
$ 156.00	Mr. A's grant amount (rounded)

3. Mr. B and his two children have not been in the United States eight months. Mr. B has $200 unearned income. He and the children have no resources. Mrs. B, who has been in the United States eight months, has $400 unearned income and no resources. The total income, $600, is less than the gross income level for the three-member group that has been in the United States less than eight months.

To figure the amount of the grant, the worker first takes $495 (the needs including Mrs. B) and subtracts $426 (the needs excluding Mrs. B). $69 is the amount Mrs. B is allowed to meet her needs. Mrs. B's income of $400 minus her needs of $69 leaves $331 to be applied to the eligible group's needs of $426.

Mr. B's income of $200 plus $331 from Mrs. B equals $531. Mr. B and the two children have needs of $426 and $531 income to be applied. Mr. B and the two children are not eligible for RCA.
